Poem of the Week

Autumn is Here

Autumn leaves
Red, gold and brown
Falling, swirling,
Drifting down.

Prickly conkers
Cracking, popping.
Branches snap,
Acorns dropping.

Picking pumpkins,
Juicy apples too.
Gathering blackberries
In hedgerows for you.

Foggy mornings
Damp, cold and grey.
Nature's blanket,
Clouding the day.

Swallows gather
Swooping up high.
Off they go
To Africa, they fly.

Hibernating hedgehog,
Finds somewhere to sleep.
Be sure it's not your bonfire
Or your rubbish heap.

Shorter days,
Frosty and wet.
Winter's round the corner,
But not quite yet.

We have two exciting trips / events on Friday next week for Years 1-4:

Please can all Year 1 parents who have not yet contacted the office, advise what their child would like to order for lunch after the Multiskills session at Penryn College.

Can all Year 2, 3, & 4 parents who have not returned the form or consented online for the Royal Cornwall Museum Trip, please advise if your child needs a school packed lunch to be ordered (which I have to order from the kitchen on Monday). Anyone who I have not had a reply from by Monday lunchtime I will assume is having a school packed lunch. Thank you!

Mrs. Tucker

Don't they all look amazing in their new kit?

The sporting league heats this week, were tough for our very new teams; but they all played with gusto, enthusiasm and displayed incredible sportsmanship.

Well done, Flushing!

We just couldn't be prouder of you all!

Thank you to Mrs. Wilcox and Mr. Mutsaers for coaching and supervising them, and to all the parents, supporting events such as these.

It really means a lot to us all!
