

FLUSHING SCHOOL
NEWSLETTER
5th June 2026

Dear Families,

It was lovely to welcome everyone back this week after a sun-soaked holiday. We were thankful for a bit of rain to help all of our newly planted seeds along. Our sunflowers in the Bowling Green are really doing well.

Unfortunately, the rain postponed Sports Day but we are keeping our fingers crossed for next Tuesday at 1.30 p.m. We will let you know as soon as possible if the weather isn't good.

We have a jam-packed week next week. On Monday we are holding a football World Cup Art afternoon. The children are going to pick a team and then create art work in each classroom in mixed age groups. On Thursday we have illustrator Rebecca Cobb coming into school to do some illustration workshops with each class and she will then formally open our new library space. In the afternoon, we will welcome members of our local community who have kindly donated generously over the past year funding books and play equipment for the children. It will be a lovely afternoon treating them to cake to say thankyou to them.

On Friday, the Dolphins class are off to the university for the Festival of Science. Please look out for Seals on Saturday at the Sea Shanty Festival. We will be parading through the town and performing on the main stage at lunchtime.

Wishing you all a peaceful weekend,

Mrs Power
