December

Poem of the Week

In December we're happy
Whatever the weather,
For the holidays helps people
Be happy together.

A carpet of snow
Covers the ground,
The sweet sound of carols
Is heard all around.

Candles and stars
And Christmas tree lights,
Twinkle and glow
In the velvet night.

The wonderful teachers at Cornwall Music Service Trust have arranged a Christmas Concert on Weds 6th December at 2:30 at the Village club. Showcasing our fantastic violin, guitar and keyboard students, as well as some at home learners, this is a lovely opportunity to see how the students are progressing, as well as indulging in a bit of festive cheer!

If your child does not currently learn an instrument and is interested in doing so, feel free to pop along to see the concert, and chat to Genevieve.

On Monday, some students from Flushing School attended an inter school swimming gala at Truro School. The children were, without exception, amazingly encouraging and supportive of each other. Some of them were very nervous but they were supported by their peers and gave their absolute best in every race. I am delighted to announce that for the first time ever, Flushing school were overall winners of the entire gala.

In other sporting news, this week saw the first of our running club sessions. The aim, weather permitting, is to run each Tuesday between now and the cross-country event at Penryn College in the new year. Well done to all those who attended, particularly those in Year 4 who didn't quite know what they were letting themselves in for but came along anyway!
